General Paper Submission Guidelines

01. All submissions and papers must be written in English.
02. Contributions from either individual or multiple authors are welcome.
03. Two types of submission are accepted:
 - Abstract (maximum 1,500 words, including the reference section), or
 - Full paper (maximum 7,000 words, including the reference section)
04. Submissions must be original and should not have been previously published or currently under review for publication elsewhere.
05. The author's name and affiliation should be shown only on the cover page of the manuscript. They should not be indicated anywhere in the paper.
06. Submissions may be accepted either for stand-up or poster presentations based on the quality of the paper and the author's preference.
07. Once the submission is accepted, at least one of the authors must register for and present at the conference.
08. Papers will be presented in either oral (i.e., stand-up presentation) or visual (i.e., poster) form.
09. Even if a full paper is submitted and accepted, authors will have the option to have only their abstract included in the conference proceedings to be published electronically.
10. All contributions should follow the format and style prescribed by the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA, 7th edition).
11. Tables and figures (300 dpi) should be clearly labeled in the format and style prescribed by the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA, 7th edition) and suitable for direct reproduction.
12. Authors will retain full copyright to their work, and the conference organizers are making no claim on the copyright.
13. Best paper awards will be competitively selected by the Best Paper Review Committee after assessing the final version of the full paper (maximum 7,000 words, including the reference section) submitted.
